"BOOM THE TOWN YOU LIVE IN."

The Norfolk County Gazette.

"NEWSY, AND 'UP-TO-DATE.'"

The Old Hyde Park Gazette.

(Adapted from the Chicago Times-Herald.)

Excuse me, Mr. Editor, I just dropped in to say
That if you've any papers you are goin' to throw away,
I'd feel most mighty gratifed if somehow I could get
A fairly recent copy of the old Hyde Park Gazette.

Of course it ain't a daily, but still it seems to me
A paper printed once a week is just the right idee.
I always find within it all the news I really need,
When city papers dish up stuff that no one cares to read.

I've been here now a fortnight with my daughter Mandy's folks,
Hain't seen a thing worth reading but a lot of chestnut jokes.
I hope it ain't presumin', sir, too much for me to say
I don t see how you manage so to let news get away.

I've read your paper reg'lar, but it makes me fairly foam
When I never find a cussed word about the folks at home.
I hope that you'll excuse me if I emphasize my views—
But you show most blamed poor judgment in selectin' of your news.

Who cares about the Sultan of New Jersey, anyway?
I want to know how Hyde Park went for selectmen t'other day.
Who cares for Venezoola, or for Cuba or for Spain?
Who cares how many turkeys Abdul Hamid's folks have slain?

We all know that McKinley was elected President,
But what I want to know now is how Hyde Park township went.
Who cares a continental how the build the cabinet?
Has Hyde Park built a new Town Hall? Is the High School finished yet?

I've read your special telegrams from every foreign spot,
But they don't tell whether the local "Duke" is an editor yet or not.
Why couldn't you just spare a line or two some time to say
How the "wind did blow up High street" on last election day?

And why not take sufficient space to add upon the side
That the office cat, old "Nonpariel," came back with the tide?
Confound your foreign fixin's! Give me the news, you bet?
And the only paper that prints it is the Old Hyde Park Gazette.
